SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Julius Deutsch, director of the Globus publishing house in Vienna, recently visited Moscow for instructions concerning the finances of his enterprise which is the central publishing house of the KPOe.

- The arrangements made in Moscow for the financial restoration of the Globus publishing house provide for the following:
  - The Globus publishing house will, in the future, be responsible for the exportation to all Satellite countries of all Austrian publications, including scientific publications.
  - b. In the accomplishment of its mission the Globus publishing house will purchase valuable publications, both Austrian and foreign, and export them to Satellite countries via Leipzig, with the provision that these countries purchase books published by the Globus publishing house in quantities valued at 50 percent of the export cost of the above-mentioned publications.
  - The Moscow central publishing house for foreign scientific literature has requested the ministries of public instruction of the countries in the Soviet orbit to use foreign scientific publications imported through the Globus publishing house in their universities.
